

Karen Mellott Colston Memorial Scholarship

Karen Mellott Colston was an incredible lady who loved people and lived life to the fullest. Known for her infectious smile and wonderful personality, she demonstrated a life-long love for Chesapeake, the community of Great Bridge and her alma mater Great Bridge High School. She was the Senior Class President of the Class of 1977, and found great joy in the “tradition and pride” represented in her school. As such, she was a tremendous supporter of Great Bridge High School throughout her adult life. As the founder and owner of Great Bridge Child Care, she had a genuine love for children and loved watching each one grow and mature into successful adults.
